

BUTTERMILK MASHED POTATOES

SERVED WITH DAN PELOSI'S MELTED LEEK & LEMON ROAST CHICKEN

Makes 2 servings

Ingredients

Prepped Ingredients

Melted Leek & Lemon Roast Chicken (page 10)¹²

Buttermilk Mashed Potatoes

1 large Russet Potato, 1" dice

Kosher Salt, to taste

¼ cup Buttermilk

2 Tbsp Heavy Cream

2 Tbsp Salted Butter

Instructions

On Prep Day:

Boil the Potatoes

1. Place diced potato in a large pot of cold water. Add a generous pinch of salt. Boil until you can insert a fork into the potato with minimal resistance, about 15-18 minutes. Strain the cooked potatoes and return them to the pot to dry and cool completely.
2. Once cooled, you can prepare the mashed potatoes immediately or place the cooled potatoes in an airtight container to store in the refrigerator and use throughout the week—they will last for 3-5 days.

Prepare the Mashed Potatoes

1. In a saucepan, combine buttermilk, heavy cream, and salted butter. Cook over low heat*, until the mixture begins to steam. Add the cooked potatoes and, using a fork or masher, mash the potatoes until smooth and creamy. Cook for 3-4 minutes until the potatoes are hot to the touch. Taste and season with a few pinches of salt to taste.

*If you heat the buttermilk too quickly—on high heat—it might curdle. Reduce that risk by continuously whisking and warming it up on low heat; however, if it curdles, don't worry, it's not ruined. It'll still taste fine.

Plate & Serve

1. Onto your serving plates, spoon a bed of mashed potatoes and top with the melted leeks, lemon slices, and cuts of roast chicken. Garnish with freshly ground black pepper.

CAESAR FRITES

WITH CRISPY SHOESTRING POTATOES

Makes 2 servings

Ingredients

Prepped Ingredients

Shoestring Potatoes (page 9)²

Creamy Lemon Parmesan Dressing (page 7)²

Melted Leek & Lemon Roast Chicken (page 10)¹²

Caesar Frites

Shoestring Potatoes*

4-5 cups loosely packed Baby Gem Lettuce

Creamy Lemon Parmesan Dressing, to taste

8-12 oz Melted Leek & Lemon Roast Chicken, diced

Freshly Ground Black Pepper, to taste

Kosher Salt, to taste

¼ cup grated Parmigiano Reggiano Cheese, plus more for garnish

*Use the remaining amount or as much as you desire (i.e., exact measurements aren't necessary)

Instructions

Prepare the Frites

1. Preheat your oven to 375°F.
2. Place shoestring potatoes on a large sheet tray and place in the oven to crisp up for 4-5 minutes.

Prepare Caesar & Plate

1. In a large mixing bowl, combine baby gem lettuce, creamy lemon parmesan dressing, diced leftover chicken, freshly ground black pepper, a pinch of kosher salt, and ¼ cup of grated Parmigiano Reggiano.
2. Plate salad and garnish with shoestring potatoes. Garnish with a small mountain of grated Parmigiano Reggiano and a few cranks of freshly ground black pepper.

GARLIC BUTTER SQUASH SKILLET WITH FARRO & SEARED SALMON

Makes 2 servings

Ingredients

Prepped Ingredients

Roasted Garlic Butter (page 8)³

Garlic Butter Squash Skillet

1 Tbsp Olive Oil

1 (2 lb) Butternut Squash, peeled & diced

¼ tsp Smoked Paprika

Kosher Salt

4 Tbsp Roasted Garlic Butter*

¼ cup grated Parmigiano Reggiano

Farro & Seared Salmon

Olive Oil, for cooking

2 (4 oz) Salmon Fillets

Kosher Salt, to taste

Freshly Ground Black Pepper, to taste

1 cup cooked Farro*

2 cups loosely packed Spinach (Optional)

Parmigiano Reggiano, for garnish

*Use the remaining amount or as much as you desire (i.e., exact measurements aren't necessary)

Instructions

Prepare the Squash Skillet

1. Preheat your oven to 375°F.
2. In a large mixing bowl, combine olive oil, butternut squash, smoked paprika, and a generous pinch of kosher salt. Stir until well combined.
3. Transfer the butternut squash to an oven-safe skillet and, in small pats, add the roasted garlic butter and Parmigiano Reggiano, evenly coating the squash.
4. Bake for 15 minutes, then remove from the oven briefly to stir. Once the melted cheese is fully mixed, place the squash back in the oven to bake for an additional 15 minutes, or until squash is fork tender.
5. Remove the squash from the oven and reserve half –drippings included– by placing it in a container and allowing it to come to room temperature. Once cooled, cover and refrigerate for Butternut Squash Soup (see Page 4).

Cook the Farro & Salmon

1. Place the skillet with the remaining roasted squash over medium heat. Add farro and stir until well combined.
2. Pat salmon dry, and season both sides with salt, and pepper.
3. Heat a sauté pan over medium heat. Once hot, add a thin layer of olive oil, followed by the seasoned salmon.
4. Once the salmon has formed a golden crust, flip and cook for an additional 3 minutes, or until the salmon reaches your desired level of doneness.
5. Add spinach (optional) to the squash skillet and cook, while stirring, until wilted, about 3-4 minutes.
6. Top the finished skillet with the cooked salmon and, using a vegetable peeler, shave Parmigiano Reggiano over the top. Garnish with freshly ground black pepper, and serve family-style.

ROSEMARY TURKEY MELTS

WITH BUTTERNUT SQUASH SOUP

Makes 2 servings

Ingredients

Prepped Ingredients

Rosemary Sandwich Bread (page 6)⁴

Leftover Butternut Squash (page 3)³⁴

Butternut Squash Soup

2 cups Leftover Butternut Squash*

1 cup Chicken Stock

Kosher Salt, to taste

Heavy Cream, for garnish

Turkey Melt

4 (½-inch) slices of Rosemary Sandwich Bread

4 Tbsp Full-Fat Mayonnaise

2 Tbsp Dijon Mustard (Optional)

Olive Oil, for cooking

8 oz Oven-Roasted Turkey Deli Slices

½ to ¾ cup shredded Cheddar Cheese, divided*

1 Tbsp Salted Butter

*Use the remaining amount or as much as you desire (i.e., exact measurements aren't necessary)

Instructions

Prepare the Butternut Squash Soup

1. Place butternut squash and chicken stock in a small saucepan over medium-low heat and bring to a boil—the stock should be bubbling frequently, but not at a full boil.
2. Turn heat off and, using a blender (either a standard blender or immersion blender), blend squash until smooth. Season with salt to taste.
3. If the soup is too loose for your liking, cook it over medium-low heat, until it reaches your desired consistency. Otherwise, cover and keep the soup warm over low heat.

Make the Grilled Cheeses

1. Spread the outsides of all slices of rosemary bread with 1 tablespoon of mayonnaise (each). Spread a thin layer of dijon mustard (optional) on insides of the bread. Set aside.
2. Heat oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Place sliced turkey in two piles in the pan—make sure the turkey slices are in messy piles, not in clean stacks. Sear until a slightly golden brown crust forms, around 3 minutes.
3. Gently flip the turkey and top with a few pinches of cheddar cheese. Once cheese is melted and the turkey is heated through, around 2-3 minutes, transfer the turkey to a plate and set aside.
4. In the same pan over medium-low heat, melt butter. Once fully melted, add the rosemary bread, mayonnaise side facing down, then sprinkle the remaining cheese over the bread slices.
5. Once the cheese is slightly melted and the bread is lightly toasted, place each stack of cooked turkey and cheese on top. Close each sandwich, and continue toasting on both sides until deeply golden brown and melted through.
6. Transfer the turkey melts to a cutting board and slice in half, diagonally. Serve with a bowl of butternut squash soup, garnished with a light drizzle of heavy cream.

CARAMELIZED LEEK & LEMON PASTA WITH SHRIMP

Makes 2 servings

Ingredients

Kosher Salt, to taste

8 oz (or ½ lb) Pasta of your choice

Olive Oil, for cooking

½ large Leek, trimmed, cut in half lengthwise, & thinly sliced

3 cloves of Garlic, thinly sliced

½ Lemon, cut in half lengthwise & thinly sliced
(reserve 2 to 4 slices for garnish)

2 Tbsp White Wine (or White Wine Vinegar)

15-18 large Shrimp, thawed, peeled, & deveined

3 Tbsp Heavy Cream

1 cup tightly packed Spinach (Optional)

2 to 3 Tbsp Reserved Pasta Water

⅓ cup grated Parmigiano Reggiano

Freshly Ground Black Pepper

Instructions

Boil the Pasta

1. Bring a large pot of water up to a boil. Once the water reaches a rolling boil, add a few generous pinches of salt, followed by your choice of pasta. Cook according to the package instructions.

Important Note: Reserve 3 Tbsp of pasta water before straining.

Prepare the Leek & Lemon Sauce

1. Heat a few glugs of olive oil in a large sauté pan over medium heat. Once the oil is hot and shimmering, add thinly sliced leeks and sauté until soft, around 3 minutes. Add garlic and cook until fragrant, about 1-2 minutes.
2. Using a spatula, push the cooked leeks and garlic to the side of the pan and in the now-empty side, add a few glugs of olive oil. Add lemon slices and cook until slightly caramelized on both sides, around 2-3 minutes.
3. Once slightly caramelized, stir the lemon and leeks together until fully combined. Deglaze with white wine and reduce the heat to low.
4. Once the wine has reduced slightly, push the leek and lemon mixture to the side, and add a few glugs of olive oil to the now-empty side of the pan. Add shrimp and cook until pink and opaque on both sides, around 2-3 minutes.
5. Stir the shrimp into the leeks and lemon and stir in the heavy cream. Continue to cook over low heat, until the heavy cream thickens, around 2 minutes.
6. Add the cooked pasta and spinach (optional) to the pan and turn off the heat. Add grated Parmigiano Reggiano, reserved pasta water, and a pinch of kosher salt. Stir vigorously until the pasta is glossy, the cheese is emulsified, and the spinach is wilted.
7. Plate and garnish with freshly grated (or shaved) parmesan reggiano, additional lemon slices, and black pepper.

ROSEMARY SANDWICH BREAD

Makes 1 (9 x 5) loaf

Ingredients

Tangzhong

¼ cup (60 g) Water

¼ cup (70 g) Buttermilk

3 Tbsp (28 g) All-Purpose Flour

Rosemary Sandwich Bread

1 cup (238 g) Warm Water

1 Tbsp (17 g) White Cane Sugar

1 packet or 2 ¼ tsp (7 g) Active Dry Yeast

3 ¾ cup (520 g) All-Purpose Flour*

Tangzhong

3 Tbsp (41 g) Salted Butter, softened

2 tsp (8 g) Kosher Salt

1 ½ Tbsp (6 g) Dried Rosemary

1 Tbsp (15 g) Extra Virgin Olive Oil

*Spoon & Leveled

Instructions

Prepare the Tangzhong

1. In a small saucepan, whisk together water, buttermilk, and flour. Cook over medium-low heat, consistently stirring, until the mixture thickens and begins to steam, about 2-3 minutes. The mixture should resemble a thick white paste, similar to mashed potatoes.

Prepare the Sandwich Bread

1. Combine water, sugar, and yeast in a stand mixer* bowl fitted with the dough hook attachment. Let the mixture sit for 5-6 minutes or until the yeast begins to foam.
2. Add flour, tangzhong, softened butter, salt, and dried rosemary. On low speed, knead until smooth, about 8-10 minutes—the dough should barely stick to the sides of the bowl.
3. Lightly grease a large bowl with olive oil. Using lightly oiled hands, shape the dough into a large round and place it in the greased bowl. Cover with a kitchen towel (or plastic wrap) and rise in a warm place until doubled in size, around 1 to 1 ½ hours.
4. Turn the dough out onto a lightly floured surface and roll it into a large (9" x 14") rectangle. Fold and roll the dough up into an 8-inch log, pinching the bottom to seal.
5. Lightly oil a 9" x 5" loaf pan and line with parchment paper. Transfer the dough log to the lined loaf pan, seam side facing down. Cover the loaf with a clean kitchen towel or plastic wrap and rise at room temperature until domed, about 45 minutes to 1 hour.
6. Preheat your oven to 350°F.
7. Bake until the internal temperature reaches 195°F and the top is golden brown, around 37 to 40 minutes.
8. Allow the bread to cool completely before slicing.

If you don't have a stand mixer, you can use your hands to knead; however, it might take an additional 5 minutes to reach the desired consistency

CREAMY LEMON PARMESAN DRESSING

Makes about 1 cup

Ingredients

½ cup (90 g) Olive Oil
2 cloves of Garlic
3 Tbsp (25 g) grated Parmigiano Reggiano
2 Tbsp (30 g) White Wine Vinegar
1 tsp (7 g) Honey
Juice of ½ Lemon (15 to 20 g)
1 tsp (4 g) Dijon Mustard
½ tsp (3 g) Kosher Salt
1 Tbsp + 2 tsp (26 g) Full Fat Mayonnaise
½ tsp (2 g) Freshly Ground Black Pepper

Instructions

1. Place olive oil and garlic in a microwave-safe container and, in 5-second increments, microwave for 15-20 seconds until the garlic is slightly soft and fragrant.
2. Transfer the olive oil and garlic to a blender with Parmigiano Reggiano, white wine vinegar, honey, lemon juice, mustard, salt, mayonnaise, and pepper. Blend until smooth and fully emulsified.

To Store: Transfer the dressing to an air-tight container and store in the refrigerator for later use.

ROASTED GARLIC BUTTER

Makes about ¼ cup

Ingredients

1 bulb of Garlic

Olive Oil

Kosher Salt

¼ cup (57 g) Salted Butter, softened

Instructions

1. Preheat your oven to 350°F.
2. Using a sharp knife, trim the top of a bulb of garlic. Place the garlic, root side down, on a piece of foil and lightly coat with a drizzle of olive oil and a pinch of salt. Fold the foil over the bulb and place on a sheet tray. Roast until the bulb of garlic is soft to the touch and deeply golden brown, about 1 hour.
3. Allow the garlic to cool until room temperature. Once cool, squeeze the garlic into a mixing bowl and add softened butter and a pinch of salt. Using a fork, stir until the butter and roasted garlic are combined—a few chunks of garlic are fine.

To Store: Transfer to an airtight container and store in the refrigerator.

SHOESTRING POTATOES

Makes about 1 ½ to 2 cups

Ingredients

1 Russet Potato, julienned

Cold Water

Neutral Oil, for frying

Kosher Salt, to taste

Instructions

1. Place julienned potato in a bowl filled with cold water. This will help remove excess starch.
2. Fill a heavy-bottomed pan with 1 inch of neutral oil and preheat to 375°F. While your oil is preheating, line a large sheet tray with paper towels.
3. Strain the potatoes & pat them completely dry.
4. Gently place your potatoes in the hot oil and fry until golden brown and crispy—transfer them to the paper towel-lined sheet tray and season them with a pinch of salt.

To Store: Place cooled-down fries in a plastic baggie and store in the freezer for later use (follow reheating instructions on recipes).

MELTED LEEK & LEMON ROAST CHICKEN

FROM DAN PELOSI'S 'LET'S PARTY'

Makes 6-8 servings

Ingredients

- 1 (4-pound) Whole Chicken, spatchcocked
- 2 Tbsp Sugar
- 1 Tbsp Kosher Salt
- 3 Lemons
- 1 large or 2 small Leeks, halved lengthwise, rinsed well, & cut into 2-inch pieces
- 2 Tbsp Extra-Virgin Olive Oil
- Freshly Ground Black Pepper
- 1/2 to 1 cup Low-Sodium Chicken Broth

Note: To make this recipe on the grill, prepare the grill for medium heat, about 400°F. Arrange everything in the skillet without cooking, set the chicken on top, and blanket with pepper. Set on the grill grates over direct heat and close the lid. Follow the same instructions for baking and basting.

Instructions

At least 4 hours before roasting...

Marinate Chicken

1. Pat the spatchcocked chicken dry all over with paper towels.
2. In a small bowl, combine the sugar, salt, and the zest of 2 of the lemons. Pinch the mixture with your fingers until a thick paste forms. Spread half the paste over the inside of the chicken, rubbing to evenly distribute it over the meat. Rub the rest of the mixture evenly over the skin side of the chicken. Line a large plate with paper towels and set the chicken on top. Marinate in the fridge, uncovered, for at least 4 hours or up to 48 hours.

Roast Chicken

1. Preheat the oven to 400°F.*
2. Arrange the leeks evenly over the bottom of a large cast-iron skillet. Thinly slice the remaining 1 lemon and arrange the pieces in the skillet. Cut the two zested lemons in half and squeeze the juice directly into the skillet. Add the olive oil. Cook over medium heat, stirring occasionally, until the leeks start to soften, about 10 minutes. Remove from the heat.
3. Transfer the chicken straight from the fridge to the top of the leeks and lemons, skin side up. Blanket the skin with pepper.
4. Place the skillet in the oven and roast the chicken for 1 hour, stopping every 15 minutes to spoon the juices over the skin. After the first basting, add 1/2 cup of chicken broth to the bottom of the skillet. After the third basting, if needed, add another 1/2 cup if the skillet looks dry.
5. Remove the skillet from the oven and baste one more time. Let the chicken rest for 15 minutes, before carving.

To Store: Place cooled-down chicken in an airtight container and store in the refrigerator for later use.
